We had Tomato Flyer Pizza Co. cater our annual tailgate party which also happened to be on National Pizza Day!

The truck showed up on time, set up was easy. Pizza was amazing and everyone raved about it. The homemade gelatos were like creamy cool deliciousness!!!

The truck was so cool and such a neat idea restoring antiques into a mobile brick pizza oven. Great concept and fun for all adults and kids. Would definitely hire them again for an event!

Tomato Flyer was the perfect catering solution for our wedding. Tiger worked closely with us in the months leading up to our celebration to make sure everything was to our liking. We were able to customize the menu, alcohol offerings and choose gelato flavors (a tough choice!). On the day, Tiger worked closely with our venue and coordinator, the restored truck was a ton of fun, and the Tomato Flyer team was extremely friendly. But most importantly, the food was fantastic! After years of mediocre wedding food, we knew we wanted pizza from the start and Tomato Flyer exceeded our expectations. We would recommend Tomato Flyer to anyone looking for great food and service.

First of all - what a cool looking truck!!! Fantastic restored truck comes to you!

My daughters college graduation in late may was the cause for celebration. We hired TIGER (Yes - Tiger..) and his competent crew to cater an event for 100 on a late Friday afternoon.

Tiger arrived early to set up - and was ready well before start time. We opted for Beer and Wine with the pizzas - and it was cold and appreciated on a warm day. The alcohol add on was a surprisingly affordable add-on to our catering.

We also opted for for the charcuterie which was my absolute favorite. My daughter preferred the incredible home made gelato (The same stuff the supply to the high end grocers and farmers markets in the tri-state area!)

We were having such a good time - we were allowed to extend our service with them by the hour after the initially contracted. It was a home run.

Tiger and staff went out of their way to make her special day unforgettable. Don't hesitate to give him a call and let him customize your special event. While initially my daughter and wife had reservations about a pizza truck - I am now the smartest guy in the room - with a very happy family!

We attended a tasting party this past weekend and enjoyed the amazing food and fun presentation. The Italian wines and craft beers complimented the delicious food. We loved it so much we signed a contract this morning to have them cater our rehearsal dinner next year. The truck made this so much fun.

The Tomato Flyer made for an absolutely amazing caterer for our wedding. People raved about the food, which is probably the most important thing, but a few notes on that:

- The truck is super cool and very classy and sort of transcends the whole "food truck wedding" look (e.g. they set up cool, lightweight wooden serving tables to create a fairly sizable spread for all of the foods, though they definitely could have made do with less space if we'd wanted that)
- The owner, Tiger, was really awesome about letting us customize all sorts of things: we wanted people to have champagne in hand during the ceremony, and he happily obliged
- Paper/plastic cutlery was included, but Tiger was cool with letting us provide palm leaf plates and cloth napkins to class it up a bit
- We had some specific ideas in mind for wine pairings, and Tiger managed to find them all!
- It wasn't really just pizza: the charcuterie sampler(s) and genuinely very good salads really made it feel like a cool and classy meal (and again, the pizza is really good)
- Tiger was responsive, communicative, and happily met with us a few times in advance.

We'd gladly recommend to anyone!

I used Tomato Flyer to cater my daughters rehearsal dinner last month and they killed it! Best pizza ever! I used them a couple of years ago for an office function and it was great then but to be honest the Pizza's were a little slow coming out a a bit of a line formed. This time there was never a line and this event was for more people than the last time. They have refined there systems to dramatically reduce the amount of time it takes to feed people.

I highly recommend them for you event

Tomato Flyer Pizza Co. catered our engagement party last evening. Fortunately for us, another event got rescheduled and they were able to accommodate us. Our December wedding is going to be Country Club style, so we decided to do something more casual for our engagement party. The food, bar and service were all extraordinary. The beautiful restored antique truck was the hit of the party (leaving the bride to be in second place). Some guests said it was the best pizza they ever had. Jonathan, me and our guests had a wonderful evening. We want to thank Tomato Flyer for helping to make this a truly memorable event. Five Stars!

Tomato Flyer just left and I had to write this review immediately to share how fantastic everything was. The food was delicious and the service was great.

They came and provided food for our annual neighborhood block party today and everything was fantastic!

They started with delicious salads and appetizers and then served 5 different delicious pizzas. The crust was sooo good! All of our neighbors loved everything. They came early and starting serving right on time. The chefs were friendly and professional. Tiger came to make sure everything ran smoothly. I'm aware of older negative reviews but I think they're back on track! I'd definitely hire them again.
